

International Advisory Experts Award 2020

News & Updates • July 21, 2020

Safir Anand has received the International Advisory Experts Award 2020 for exemplary performance in the field of Intellectual Property.

International Advisory Experts is a global network of well-established and experienced legal, financial, tax and consulting firms. Each year they deploy robust research mechanisms to vet leading and the most sought-after individuals of their fields on the basis of peer recommendations and their robust portfolios.

Safir's out-of-the-box approach and going beyond the call of duty in providing our clients with wholesome solutions has earned him laurels from across the world.

